JUDGES OF INTL. COURT ELECTED BY THE LEAGUE

Wang Chung-hui For China Is Given Place In Second List

42 STATES VOTE

Alvarez And Deschamps In Clash But Former Is Deemed Elected

(Reuter's Service)

Geneva, Sept. 14.—After a lengthy debate, involving no fewer than five ballots and two adjournments, the Assembly of the League of Nations has elected, and the Council has confirmed, the following as the 11 Judges of the International Court of Justice:

Senor Altamira, Spain.
Signor Anzilotti, Italy.
Senhor Barboza, Brazil.
Senor de Bustamente, Cuba.
Lord Finlay, Great Britain.
M. Lodey, Netherlands.
Mr. Oda, Japan.
M. Weiss, France.
Prof. John Moore, U. S. A.
Professor Huber, Switzerland.
M. Nyholm, Denmark.

The list represents a compromise between the Assembly's and the Council's selections. The former proposed Senor Alvarez (Chile) and M. Huber for the last two places, while the Council favored Baron Descamps (Belgium) and M. Nyholm.

Subsequently the Assembly elected four supplementary judges, viz:

Senor Alvarez, Chile.
M. Negulesco, Rumania.
Dr. Wang Chung-hui, China.
M. Yovanovitch, Yugo-Slavia.

Forty-two States took part in the voting. A conflict of views arose between the Assembly and the Council as to whether Senor Alvarez or Baron Descamps should be elected, as the latter obtained an absolute majority in three successive ballots of the Council. Finally the Assembly decided that a joint committee should mediate in the matter.

At the close of the sitting the Assembly paid honor to the memory of Dante, whose sixth centenary is being celebrated today. All the delegates rose in their seats. M. Motta (Switzerland), M. Hanotaux (France), Signor Scialoji (Italy) and Sir Rennell Rodd, formerly British Ambassador at Rome, delivered eloquent tributes to the great poet. This solemn and imposing manifestation clearly won the hearts of the Italian delegates.

S. AMERICA CLANNISH

Geneva, September 14.—In the elections to the Court of International Justice, the States voted alphabetically. Senhor Barboza headed the first ballot with 38 votes and was followed by M. Weiss with 30.

Noticeable in the results of the elections is the success of the South American candidates, which is attributed to the clannish feeling of the Spanish nationalities and preliminary clever wire-pulling.

TO FORM LOCAL ENTENTE

Geneva, Sept. 14.—The Committee on Amendments has passed a motion introduced by Dr. Benes, the Czecho-Slovakian Foreign Minister, authorising the formation under the League's auspices of local Ententee among nations naturally gravitating towards one another by reason of community of interests.

On the ground that it was untimely and ran counter to the Peace Treaty, the Budget Committee has rejected a motion by Sir William Mayers (India) proposing that the International Labor Bureau's estimates should be passed not only by the Bureau's Board, but also by the League Council. In the course of the discussion M. Thomas, the director of the Bureau, stated that millions of Indian workers are represented on the Bureau through the delegates of their organisations.

Conservative Gets W. Lewisham Seat

London, Sept. 14.—The result of the bye-election at West Lewisham was announced today, as follows:

Sir Philip Dawson (Con. Anti-waste)	9427
Lieut. Commander Windham (Anti-waste)	8580
Raffety (Ind. Liberal)	6211

At the last general election Major Sir E. Coates (Coalition Unionist) was returned unopposed.

GENERAL WOOD AND PARTY TO BE HERE TOMORROW

Launch Will Meet Ship With Committees Of American And Chinese Officials

All arrangements for the entertainment of Gen. Leonard Wood, Mr. Cameron Forbes and the party they head from Manila probably will not be made until the visitors arrive tomorrow on the Empress of Asia and, as the party will only be in Shanghai over night, it is possible that the only affair of welcome will be the dinner at the Carlton tomorrow night which is to be given by the American Association and the American Chamber of Commerce.

On account of the short time that he will be in Shanghai General Wood has been obliged to decline an invitation of the Municipal Council to inspect the Shanghai Volunteer Corps and therefore a parade of the Corps tomorrow that had been planned will not be held.

An invitation was forwarded to General Wood by the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce asking him to arrange time in the period he is here for a reception by Chinese organisations and it is probable that a reception by the Chinese will take place in the afternoon.

The Empress of Asia is due off Woosung at noon tomorrow and arrangements have been made by a Chinese delegation to meet the vessel with a launch. The committee of Chinese aboard the launch will be accompanied by a delegation of American officials headed by Mr. E. S. Cunningham, American Consul General. It is understood that the party of visitors will be landed from the Empress of Asia at Woosung and will come on to Shanghai in automobiles.

The party will leave Sunday for Peking and will remain there for five days before proceeding to Japan by way of Mukden and Korea. Col. W. F. Drysdale, Military Attache of the Peking Legation, accompanied by several representatives of the Peking Government arrived last night to greet General Wood and will accompany the party to the Capital.

Canadian Trade Is Showing Big Drop

(Reuter's Service)

Ottawa, Sept. 14.—Canada's total trade for August showed a decrease of $110,000,000 as compared with August 1920. Exports and imports fell about equally.

Great Throng Sees Start Of Dedication Of Peking Union Medical College

Marvel At Efficiency Of Hospital And The Completeness Of Equipment Furnished By The Rockefeller Foundation

(Staff Wire To The China Press)

Peking, Sept. 15.—Thousands of Chinese and foreigners attended the formal reception and start of dedicatory exercises of the Peking Union Medical College. The visitors were shown through the hospitals and inspected the three wards, four operating rooms, X-ray laboratories, clinics for outpatients, wonderful kitchens and the heating and cooling plants. The big gathering was entertained with music of the pipe organ in the chapel.

The opening day of the hospital of the Rockefeller Foundation institution found everything in excellent running order at the hospital with all beds full. Many cablegrams of congratulation were received, among them one from Mr. Alfred Sze, Chinese Minister at Washington and others from American Medical Societies. In the maternity ward the visitors were made acquainted with all the modern facilities and equipment that has been installed.

The dedication will take place Monday afternoon before a large audience.

'Just A Great Lovable Boy,' Says Arbuckle's Wife Going To Aid Him

(Reuter's Service)

San Francisco, Sept. 14.—The national interest in the case of Arbuckle has not abated and the papers are printing columns daily.

In the course of her evidence at the inquest, Mrs. Belmont, a friend of Miss Rappe, showed that liquor flowed freely at the fatal party, some members of whom were undoubtedly drunk. Mrs. Belmon stated that Miss Rappe did not object when Arbuckle entered the bed-room with her.

A nurse gave evidence that Miss Rappe told her there had been intimacy between her and Arbuckle.

Arbuckle's wife, from whom he had been separated, is coming to San Francisco to support her husband. She declares that "Fatty" is "just a great big lovable overgrown boy, whose success has been a little too much for him." She is convinced that he is not guilty of the hideous charge brought against him.

ARBUCKLE AT INQUEST

San Francisco, Sept. 13.—Arbuckle was present today at the inquest on Miss Rappe, Mrs. Belmont—one of the women present at a "Gin Jollification" in Arbuckle's apartments—declared that Arbuckle dragged Miss Rappe into a bed room and locked the door.

The witness an hour later heard screams from the bed-room. When Arbuckle opened the door at her request, the witness found Miss Rappe in bed, tearing her clothing and screaming, "I am dying. He did it."

The Coroner asked Mrs. Belmont, who admitted drinking ten classes whisky at the party, how she remembered these happenings. The witness replied: "My memory was always good." She said Miss Rappe had three glasses of gin mixed with orange wine.

Miss Rappe's manager, Mr. Semmacher, said he did not hear any screams while in the apartment. He visited Miss Rappe next day, when she told him Arbuckle had injured her.

The missing witness, Miss Blake has reappeared. She said she had left home to avoid notoriety.

Nansen Calls On World To Feed The Russians

(Reuter's Service)

London, September 14.—The following call to the British peoples throughout the world, on behalf of the "Russian Crusade," is issued by Dr. Nansen from Geneva:

"Millions in Russia are confronted with imminent death. Famine and pestilence are taking a merciless toll. The calamity is almost without parallel, and challenges the very heart of the world. Timeliness is the prime essential in dealing with it.

"The distribution of supplies in the actual famine areas and in these alone is safeguarded convincingly, for adequate and binding guarantees have been offered by the Russian Government, which guarantees have been approved by the Joint Council of the International Red Cross Committee and the League of Red Cross Societies. These guarantees include the admission into Russia of a representative or representatives of the Russian Famine Relief Fund in Great Britain to supervise and control the distribution of relief material.

"There remains only the formidable problem of finance. Given some prompt and adequate solution of that, the bulk of these stricken people may yet be saved. In these circumstances, I appeal directly to the peoples of the Imperial British Commonwealth, who have heretofore responded with a fine spirit of helpfulness in such emergencies, to subscribe generously to the National Fund organised by the Russian Famine Relief Committee.

"There has never been a nobler opportunity than the present to render a like unreckoning service. The resources within the British Empire are not lacking for meeting this emergency, but those who possess these resources in money and in food must give generously and give now.

"(Signed) Fridtjof Nansen,
"High Commissioner."

The Russian Famine Relief Fund, under the presidency of the Lord Mayor of London, represents an attempt to ensure that British response throughout the world to Russia's cry for help shall be securely administered. National or other funds for this purpose throughout the Empire agreeing to fall into line with this all-British effort would enable British help for Russia to be sent as one contribution for safe administration solely by British representatives in the areas allotted by Dr. Nansen.

The contributions from each Dominion or Colony would remain distinct and earmarked, but the British effort would be a united one before the world.

National or other contributions from overseas may be addressed to the Lord Mayor, Mansion House, London, if this action commends itself to those in charge of them.

DENY NANSEN'S STATEMENT

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Sept. 14.—Advices from Copenhagen state that in an interview with a representative of the Havas Agency the Danish Foreign Minister categorically denied the assertions attributed to Dr. Nansen at Geneva that Sweden and Norway had agreed to place credits at the disposal of the Soviet Government for the relief of the starving population of Russia.

The Danish Government, the Minister pointed out, resolved to aid the hungry children of Petrograd on the express understanding that this assistance was carried out by representatives of the Danish Relief Committee without any control or interference by the Soviet authorities. The sum of one million kroner provided for this purpose had not yet been touched. None of the other Scandinavian countries, the Minister added, had agreed to grant credits to Russia.

Sweden had planned to send a limited amount of supplies to Russia, independently of Denmark, and Norway, of which Dr. Nansen is one of the representatives at Geneva, offered to sell to Russia certain quantities of fish, but the negotiations with the Soviet Government have not yet concluded.

"It will be seen therefore," con-

HIGH PRAISE IS GIVEN TO CHINESE FOR THEIR WORK

London Times Comments On The People's Habit Of Stubborn Industry

(Reuter's Service)

London, September 15.—Commenting on the plight of the Chinese owing to political conflict The Times says that nevertheless China remains, in its people's habit of stubborn work and its immense natural resources, a country of singular resources. The paper sees certain hopeful features for the solution of the situation and thinks that the spread of European ideas provides an opportunity for the best that Europe can give and hazards the hope that advantage will be taken of this opportunity in the Washington Conference, of which, after all, China must be the chief theme.

The paper believes that if the Powers are sincerely bent on establishing a system of ardent cooperation in the interests of the best ideals of our present system, then the way of hope is opened up in China. Otherwise China, like Russia, must pursue her way through darkness and destruction to the light of far-off day.

ENVOYS OF IRISH MERELY SENT TO QUESTION PREMIER

Carried No Message For Sinn Fein Which Now Chooses Its Delegates

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 14.—The two Sinn Fein envoys who visited Mr. Lloyd George did not present any letter to him. They were merely deputed to discuss certain difficulties. They returned this morning to Dublin, where Dail Eireann met for two and a-half hours in private session today.

It unanimously approved the Sinn Fein Cabinet's reply to Mr. Lloyd George, and "with a view to a possible conference with representatives of the British Government," ratified the appointment of five plenipotentiaries, viz: Messrs. Arthur Griffith, chairman; Michael Collins, Barton, Gavan Duffy and Commandant Duggan. The last-named is the deputy for Meath and Louth.

Venizelos Weds In London; Will Tour U. S. And Lecture

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 14.—M. Venizelos, the Greek ex-Premier, has been married in a London registry office to Miss Schilizzi, the daughter of a wealthy Greek merchant.

The honeymoon will be spent on the Continent, after which M. Venizelos will depart on a six months' visit to America, where he will lecture on the League of Nations.

Moon Lady Comes Down To Visit Earth Tonight

By Elsie McCormick

Tonight, according to Chinese lore, the full moon will reach the largest dimensions of the year and at its setting the Moon Lady will step down to earth to mingle for a few hours among mortals. The Mid-Autumn Festival, which falls on the fifteenth day of the eighth moon, is one of the most important feasts of the Chinese calendar and its celebration in Shanghai will mean the closing of [illegible] shops.

Though the festival is dedicated in a vague way to lunar worship, there seems to be a good deal of disagreement as to just who lives in the moon. Some Chinese savants claim that its tenant is an old man who runs a matrimonial bureau for the earth; others say that it is the address of a beautiful unmarried girl who has the attributes of an Oriental Diana; and still others claim that it is inhabited by a respectable Moon Mother, who takes a maternal interest in the grown-up children of the world and who has very rigid ideas on the subject of propriety.

Somehow we rather like the idea of a lady in the moon. It seems much more appropriate to think of the moon as a silvery blue boudoir, with delicate hangings and shining toilet articles, than as the den of an old man given to smoking a pipe and throwing papers about as he goes over his matrimonial records. Maybe the waxing and waning of the moon is achieved by the lady turning her mirror 'round slowly to get a better view of her back hair.

WIFE OF HAN ARCHER

Another Chinese theory declares that the lunar lady was the wife of a famous archer of the Han Dynasty—an archer so wonderful that his arrows put out the light of nine suns in succession. When he threatened to draw his bow on the only one remaining, its protecting god told him that if he would stay his hand he would be allowed to dwell in the moon. Upon consenting to this arrangement, he was given a potion to drink that would arrange transportation to his lunar abode. The gentleman reckoned without his wife, for when he retired to pack his suitcase or something, she drank the potion herself and was lifted high in the Heavens to a luxurious though rather lonesome home above the clouds.

It may be of course, that the husband knew what he was doing when he left her alone with the sun-god's sarsaparilla. In any case, he was freed forever from questions about why he stayed out so late at lodge-meeting and why he spent so many strings of cash on new arrows and such trash when there was a hole the size of a pretzel in the middle of the family's best Peking rug.

After the midnight feast on the fifteenth day, the moon dips low on the horizon and the moon-lady steps out for a little walk on the paths of earth. There is one tale about an old woman who met the silvery goddess and who was promised that if she made a wish, it would be fulfilled for her. The woman was so overcome by the glory of her shimmering visitor that she was unable to speak. Urged again, she pointed tremblingly to her mouth, to indicate that she would be satisfied if she could be sure always of enough to eat. The next day she noticed that she was the owner of a mustache and a neat little beard. The Moon Lady had mistaken her wish.

A feature of the lunar celebration is the giving of cakes and other trinkets, all made in the shape of the new or full moon. The recent strike of the bakers in Canton threw as much consternation into the hearts of the inhabitants as a strike of tree-choppers would in America, with Christmas only a few weeks away. As a result of picking out a strategic moment, the bakers achieved practically all their demands and went back to work in time to sow the annual crop of moon-cakes.

The festival is also celebrated by the arranging of statuettes, representing the Buddha and benevolent genii, on lighted steplike altars in the living-room of the house. Family treasures which spend the rest of the year stored away in chests are brought out for the occasion, and friends visit each other for the purpose of seeing the displays. As a rule, an illuminated pagoda stands in the center of the little playground of the gods. As the moon is the special patroness of poetry, the day is highly esteemed by the old-fashioned cultivated classes.

Any religious significance which once might have surrounded the Mid-Autumn Festival has been practically lost to modern China. To the average person, it is a season of family dinners, of friendly visits among neighbors, of illuminating and beautifying a household altar, and of paying more or less mock-homage to the dweller in the moon.

If the present exaggerated moisture does not abate, the celebrants will observe the full moon only on the calendar.

Electricity Sent At Million Volts Pressure In Wires

(Reuter's Service)

Pittsfield, Massachusetts, Sept. 14.—The General Electric Company reports that, for the first time in history, it has "generated and transmitted an excess of a million volts pressure by a transformer equipment designed along standard lines with current at the ordinary household efficiency of sixty cycles per second."

It was found possible to send current over the wires without prohibitive waste due to leakage into the air.

It is claimed that the test confirms the belief that it is commercially feasible to use a considerably higher voltage in the transmission of power, and indicates that the extent of long-distance transmission is beyond the limits hitherto believed possible.

FULL TEXT OF JAPAN'S PROPOSALS IS PUBLISHED

Memorandum Of Obata Given Out As Handed To The Waichiaopu

OPEN SHANTUNG

But Japan Would Hold The Railway And Mines As Sino-Japanese Co.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Sept. 15.—The following is a translation of the Memorandum which Mr. Obata handed to the Waichiaopu on the 7th instant.

General Principles for the Readjustment of the Shantung question:

1.—To return to China the lease of the Kiaochao Bay territory and the rights relating to the neutral zone.

2.—In case the Chinese Government on its own initiative throws open the entire Leased Territory as a commercial port, and recognises liberty of residence, commerce, industry, agriculture and other lawful undertakings to foreigners, and respects and recognises the vested rights of foreigners, the Japanese Government agrees to the withdrawal of the proposal for the establishment of a special and international settlements.

With a view to foreign residence and commerce, the Chinese Government will as soon as possible threw open suitable cities and marts in the Province of Shantung. Regulations, governing the opening of marts in the above-mentioned places will be formulated by the Chinese Government in consultation with the interested countries.

3.—The Shantung Railway and the mines appertaining thereto are to be considered as an organisation under joint Sino-Japanese operation.

4.—All preferences and options relating to the employment of persons and the supply of capital and materials based on the Kiaochao Convention shall be denounced.

5.—The right of extension of the Shantung Railway and any option in regard to the Chefoo-Weihsien and other railways shall be assigned to the common undertaking of the new Consortium.

6.—The Customs Administration at Tsingtao will be made, even more truly and more clearly than the system under the German regime, an integral part of the Chinese Customs Administration.

7.—The Administrative Government properties within the Leased Territory will in principle be ceded to China, but further agreements will be relating to the administration and maintenance of public construction works.

8.—For the conclusion of further agreements relative to the details involved in the execution of the above-mentioned arrangements and others the Chinese and Japanse Governments shall appoint delegates as soon as possible.

9.—Although further agreements will be concluded between China and Japan relative to the organisation of a special police force for the Shantung Railway, upon the receipt of a notification from the Chinese Government of the organisation of a police force, the Japanese Government, according to its repeated declarations, will immediately announce the withdrawal of its troops, and withdraw them upon the handing over of the functions of policing the railway to the police force.

FRENCH UNIONS SEND DELEGATES TO SEE MINISTER

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Sept. 14.—The Minister of Labor, M. Daniel Vincent, yesterday received representatives of trade unions from the north. The workmen's delegates agreed to take part in an interview with representatives of the employers, proposed by the Minister.

At Roubaix and Tourcoing the bakers have already resumed work.

The Ministers of Public Works and Colonies are leaving on a tour of inspection in the Aude, Pyrenees Orientales and Ariege departments in order to examine transport works there.

MUST RECOVER SHANTUNG RY. IS URGED ON CHINA

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 14.—Mr. Lenox Simpson will sail tomorrow to meet the Chinese delegates to the Washington Conference at Vancouver and to discuss with them the program.

He strongly urges the recovery at any price of the Shantung Railway, without which he considers the province comparatively valueless.

He hopes that the Chinese representatives will concentrate on commercial and financial problems, and advocates strongly the establishment of trading zones 30 li in width along the railways and principal rivers, to be thrown open to foreign trade and manufactories but under Chinese police and fiscal regulations.

ONLY ONE CONFERENCE

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Sept. 14.—The New York Herald states that the United States Government has dispelled the impression prevailing in Washington that two separate conferences would deal with the questions of disarmament and the Far East. Actually, the same conference will examine both problems. It is of course obvious that preliminary meetings will be necessary, but the six nations invited will be scrupulously informed of the labors of these meetings.

It is understood, the journal continues, that Senator Underwood has agreed to be one of the four American representatives at the Disarmament Conference. He is said to be in favor of great publicity being given to the deliberations and to be of the opinion that it is the duty of the American representatives to convince the other Powers of the necessity of disarmament.

SENDS LIST OF TOPICS

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, Sept. 14.—The Government has sent to all the Powers invited to take part in the Disarmament Conference a list of topics suggested for discussion. The list is merely tentative and calculated to serve as a basis of agreement. No immediate replies are expected, as time will be required to study the list and exchange opinions in regard to possible objections.

CHINA'S DELEGATION

The China delegation to the Pacific Conference, numbering about 100, will sail for Shanghai on the Admiral Line steamer Hawkeye State, which leaves here October 4. Arrangements are being made by local Chinese organisations to entertain the delegates while they are here.

Dr. Phillip Tyau, Chinese Minister to Cuba, will leave for America on the Empress sailing tomorrow. Dr. Tyau will arrange for the housing of the Chinese delegation in Washington and will not leave New York for Cuba until after the Conference.

ASK CHANG'S VIEWS

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Sept. 12.—General Chang Tso-lin is in receipt of a telegram from the Peking Government telling him that in view of the near-approach of the Pacific Conference and the importance of the questions to be brought up, it is necessary for the Government to have the opinions of the Mukden General. It asks him to discuss the various problems and send his opinions to Peking. In view of this telegram Chang Tso-lin has called a meeting of the proper authorities to discuss the matter. He was of the opinion that all the questions between China and Japan could be easily settled.

Anglo-Dutch Wars Were Gentlemanly Says Adml. Hodges

(Reuter's Service)

Amsterdam, Sept. 14.—At a dinner given by the Dutch Navy in honor of the British Fleet, cordial speeches were exchanged. Admiral Hodges, recalling the wars in the past between Britain and Holland said they fought like gentlemen and sportsmen, which fact must tend in favor of friendly relations in the future.

The British squadron has sailed for the Firth of Forth.

cluded the Minister, "that the statements attributed to Dr. Dansen are totally without foundation."

SCORES COMMITTEE

(Rosta News Agency)

Moscow, Sept. 7.—Commenting upon the question of the dissolution of the Famine Relief Committee, the Moscow Pravda (Truth) says it does not interest anybody in Russia, as during the two months of its existence the Committee did not show any signs of activity in relieving the famine, nevertheless from the very beginning the Committee wanted to adopt political tactics that would play into the hands of the white guards. The All-Russian Congress of building trades unions has welcomed the dissolution of the Committee by the Central Executive Committee.

The All-Russian Central Executive Committee, the highest authority in the Soviet Republic, explains the dissolution thus:

"The Executive Committee approved the whole list of members of the Relief Committee willing that all groups of citizens participate in the relief work not imagining for a moment that some members of the Relief Committee would try to utilise the Committee as a screen for attaining their political ends. However the Central Executive Committee became convinced that the Famine Relief Committee was considered by the white guards as their political organisation. They, especially the supporters of French policy, wanted to utilise it as the means of struggle against the Soviet Government.

"Being convinced that the policy of struggle against the Soviet Government is supported in some foreign circles, the Relief Committee refused to send its members to famine districts to investigate the needs of sufferers and supervise the distribution of food. This refusal has completely convinced the Government that the Committee neglected its actual tasks for the intrigues which were woven around it by the foreign white guards.

"The Soviet Government must declare that the Relief Committee failed to perform its duties; therefore it was decided to dissolve it, turning over the performance of duties of said Committee to the Famine Relief Committee of the Soviet Government."

BERLIN DISHEARTENED

Moscow, Sept. 7.—The Berlin Russky Golos (Russian Voice) reports that the dissolution of Russian Famine Relief Committee has disheartened the Berlin reactionaries.

PRAISE FOR AMERICA

(Dalta News Agency)

Chita, Sept. 11.—The Far Eastern Truth, the official Chita paper, in an article entitled "The Famine in Russia," says that at this time of distress, starvation and death in Russia, France has again advanced her demand for paying the debts the Russian tsars contracted in France. The open-hearted bourgeoisie says:

"We won't help the starving Russians before the Soviet regime is overthrown."

"Only the Americans," says the paper, "are really doing something to save the country. Nansen and Hoover know how to help and have the desire to help the starving Russians before they die."

Chang Tso-lin Is Not To Go South; Will Send Troops

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Sept. 12.—A report that General Chang Tso-lin would leave Mukden for Peking was denied in Government quarters this morning. Some of General Chang's troops, however, will be despatched to this province as reinforcements for the Chihli party.

Mixed Court Notes

Two coolies, Waung Ah-mau, and Sung Poo-di, tried on a charge of having stolen four cases of nails from the godown of the T.E.M.A., Sept. 7, were sentenced yesterday in the Mixed Court to three and two months in jail and expulsion, when released. The men broke into the godown at 10 a.m., carried out the nails, loaded them on a wheelbarrow, and disposed of them to iron dealers for $23. Two others involved in the burglary are still at large.

* * *

Three years in the reformatory was the sentence handed down to Toong Kwi-foong and Dien Ah-cung, youths of 15 and 16 years, found guilty of having stolen a gold bangle from an unknown child in North Szechuen Road on August 29. Five other counts of larceny were uncovered during the remand the prisoners received when arrested.

* * *

For uttering counterfeit 5 and 10 cent coins in the Hongkew market Wednesday, Zien Poo-van, a hawker, was given a three-week term in jail in yesterday's session of the court. The complainant against Zien explained that a second Chinese had asked the accused to change $1 large money for small. Fifty cents of the changed money was spurious. Zien in defense insisted that he in turn had changed the big dollar at another booth, and that the keeper of that booth had given him the bad money.

The fraudulent use of a private seal or chop with the intent to cheat resulted yesterday in the Mixed Court in Zau Hung-kung being sentenced to nine months in jail.

Zau, it developed at the hearing, went to an iron shop Wednesday, purchased iron valued at $79, and offered in payment a Chinese money order stamped with the chop of Tsoong Wo-tsang, the proprietor of a little shop in Chapei.

The iron dealer undertook to verify the order by hurrying an assistant to the Chapei shopkeeper while Zau waited. The arrest followed.

Tsu Fok-ding, the complainant, told the Court that Zau once before had tendered an improperly chopped money order, that he was an old customer who had exhausted his credit and could not purchase in shops where he was known without proper security.

Zau acknowledged every charge.

Sien Ping-zien, a young shop assistant, was sentenced to nine months imprisonment in the Mixed Court yesterday after a hearing on a charge of having obtained several articles of jewelry, valued at $269, by fraud and trickery.

Sien entered a jewelry shop at 723 Fokien Road Wednesday and ordered four rings, 1 pair plain bangles, 1 pair chain bangles, 2 hair pins and 1 necklet, all of gold. He asked that an assistant accompany him and the jewelry to his quarters where payment would be made.

At the lodging house Sien took the jewelry upstairs while the shop assistant waited below. He came down soon without the package. He had not sufficient money at hand to pay the bill, he said; it would be necessary to go to his accountant's quarters for more. On the way he disappeared.

A second assistant from the jewelers, who had been following the pair, informed the police and an arrest was immediately effected. Sien explained to the court that he had expected a companion to be at his address to pay for the jewelry.

The house boy, Yong Siau-khaung, employed by the Standard Oil Company in Canton Road, who absconded in April with a cash box containing negotiable paper and money to the value of $1,857, was sentenced in the Mixed Court yesterday to two years in prison.

It was the boy's second offense of the same nature. In the case on trial it was testified that Yong had spent $1,124 of the funds in brothels and gambling in Shanghai and in Soochow. He was arrested some time ago on a minor charge and recognised as the Standard Oil absconder. The cash box, with $100 yet untouched was found at the house of the boy's aunt.

China's Delegation To Pacific Meeting To Cost $800,000

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Sept. 12.—The Ministries of Finance and Communications have succeeded in providing $8,500,000, required to meet administrative and military expenditure by the Mid-Autumn Festival.

The Ministry of Finance has agreed with the proposal of the Chinese Banking Group to allow publication of all matters connected with the agreement between the Ministry and the Banking Group concerning the 10th Year Domestic Loan. The actual flotation of the loan will probably take place immediately after the Autumn Festival.

It is understood that the first item of expenditure proposed by the Chinese Government from the proceeds of the above loan is the expenses of the Chinese Delegation to the Pacific Conference. It is estimated that $800,000 will be required for this purpose.

Colonial Office Not So Sanguine Over Times' Plan

(Reuter's Service)

London, September 14.—The Colonial Office is ignorant of any definite scheme for a new form of administration in the Crown Colonies, as outlined in the Times. It is pointed out that there are obvious difficulties in the way of devising a homogeneous scheme for dividing the Empire into sections, apart from the material diversity of its component parts, which is reflected in the wide differences of administration.

Suggestions have been made in the House of Commons and elsewhere for a closer union of the East-African colonies, and also of the West Indies, but these have not yet reached the stage of definite decision. The presence of certain Colonial Governors in England is accidental, and merely due to the fact that they are on leave.

400 HUNGHUTZE SEND JAPANESE ACROSS BORDER

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Sept. 12.—The Japaneze Consul-General at Hungchun recently reported that four hundred Hunghutze appeared on the outskirts of the town, whereupon many of the Japanese residents fled over the Tumen River into Korean territory.

The Japanese Legation made representations to the Chinese Government, urging the necessity for China to fulfil her promise to afford protection to the residents of that district against further depredations of outlaws.

Later telegrams say that in the morning there was no sign of the Hunghutze and that since then Hungchun has been quiet.

Ataman Semenoff Sails For Japan

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Vladivostok, Sept. 15.—Ataman Semenoff sailed for Japan yesterday, on board the Hozan Maru, with his staff. Interviewed by the Japanese press, he expressed the opinion that he would probably return shortly.

It is officially announced that the Grodekovo troops under General Glieboff have tendered their submission to the Vladivostok Government.

COMMISSION IS URGED TO OPEN ALL MANCHURIA

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Sept. 12.—A certain influential militarist has requested the Government to establish a special commission for foreign intercourse for all three provinces of Manchuria, with authority to control the three special administrative areas, namely Charhar, Jehol and Suaiyuan.

The members of the commission would be nominated by the Government. The matter is now under consideration.

Peking, Sept. 12.—Considerable interest attaches to the Mandate that appeared in the Official Gazette last evening, by which General Chang Kwei-ti is instructed to come to Peking and is appointed as an Inspector-General of the Army.

General Chi Chin-chun is appointed Tutung of Jehol, to succeed General Chang. General Chi is the Commandant of the 28th Division of the Fengtien forces which recently arrived at Jehol, nominally to participate in the Urga Expedition.

General Chang Tso-lin has thus succeeded in gaining control over Jehol, but it is feared that some trouble may occur with General Chang's men when they find that he has been removed from that post.

Genl. Lu Of Chekiang Favors Lushan Conference

BY JAMES L. BUTTS

Hangchow, Sept. 13.—General Lu Yung-hsiang, speaking in his customary guarded style, today voiced his approval of General Wu Pei-fu's proposed Lushan Conference.

The Chekiang Tuchun prefaced his endorsement of the Chihli leader's scheme with the usual pious expression of gratification over any suggestion which might bring order out of the present chaos in China and declared that it is his ambition to further and assist to whatever extent his power lies in any truly constructive endeavor.

When the announcement of the Lushan Conference was received by him, General Lu said, he telegraphed immediately for more details. These he had received a day or so ago from the men in charge of the plans. After considering them, he favored the scheme. Beyond this expression of his sentiment regarding the conference as a possible solution of the country's difficulties, Lu was disinclined to go. He tendered an explanation.

BECAME SUSPICIOUS

Already people had begun to look suspiciously upon the developments following the Hupeh-Hunan clash, he said, and it was being charged that Wu and others, including himself, were merely intent upon the establishment of a militaristic, non-representative government in a land which had suffered much from such experiments and which already boasted too many governments. He feared misinterpretation in the public mind of any statements he might make at this time.

Suspicion of Wu Pei-fu here has grown with the report, heavily stressed at present, that Little Hsu, whose downfall was brought about by Wu last year, recently came to Hangchow as emissary for his former foe, for the purpose of aligning Lu Yung-hsiang with the Chihli faction. The theory that Hsu is working in the interests of Wu and Tsao Kun is discounted by leading Chinese here but it is a fairly well established fact that he did visit Hangchow recently.

BUSY WITH DRAFT

General Lu is at present much occupied with business attending the newly drafted provisional constitution, which is to be officially promulgated the last of this week. A three days' celebration is planned in connection with the event and the city's main streets are being arched and decorated for the occasion.

Sentiment for and against the draft, which has just been finished, seems fairly well divided, though the local press, backed by the merchant class, has come out noisily in opposition. They declare the provisions as a whole to be impractical and play heavily on the omission from consideration of the military problem and that of government finances.

TRYING TO SIDESTEP

Failure to go thoroughly into these two vital matters, it is declared, nullifies the utility of the whole framework and signifies merely a tendancy to sidestep the difficulties of the situation. Supporters of the draft, however, declared it to be easily workable and the best possible under present circumstance and urge that it be given a fair trial. The manner of its presentation to the people for approval is still under debate but the proposal is made that a probationary period of three years be fixed during which time the provisions shall have effect, final acceptance or rejection to be made at the end of that time.

General Lu freely admitted that the draft, which he has endorsed, is not everything that could be desired, but stated that he is hopeful it will be given a trial and that he is optimistic of its ultimate usefulness. It is in line with his ideas of a federation of self-governing provinces and carries out his theory of distance identity of the federal and provincial governing systems.

Mr. C. T. Wang, who was in charge of the drafting committee, has returned to Shanghai but is expected back here shortly for further work in the interests of the scheme.

171 Of Religious Sect Killed By Cape Police

New Native Body Refused To Leave Africa; Enoch, The Prophet

Cape Town, July 9.—A native religious sect which calls itself the "Israelites," under a "prophet" named Enoch, who refused to evacuate Government land at Bulhoek, near Queenstown, Cape Colony, has been forcibly ejected, losing 171 killed and 126 wounded in a fight with mounted Cape police.

For some years the Government had permitted the "Israelites" to celebrate "Passover" on a common, but each year a growing number of pilgrims remained behind on what they called "holy ground," until a village of some 350 huts had sprung up. The sect forbade anybody to enter the village, or to recognise any authority except orders from "Jehovah, the God of Israel," as interpreted by Enoch the prophet.

The Government some time ago endeavored to register the settlement, but the police were obliged to withdraw to avoid bloodshed.

Peaceful efforts by the Secretary for Native Affairs and others to induce the "Israelites" to withdraw failed. They steadfastly refused to go.

Finally a force of 800 mounted police moved from Queenstown to demand the surrender of the village. With shouts of "Jehovah says we must fight," 4,000 natives charged the police with swords and assegais, the women urging the men with wild religious chants. The police let them come on until within 30 yards and then fired, with the result stated. Thereupon the prophet Enoch surrendered and the village is to be demolished.

The affair has caused some stir in the Cape House of Assembly. Premier Smuts declared that in view of the natives' obstinacy there was no other way to make them understand that they must obey the law.

VOGUE IN BRIDAL VEILS

The Present Tendency Is Toward Those Of Greater Length

New York, July 31.—Fashion tendencies are to be noted in bridal veils just as in every day wearing apparel, and the tendency now is toward greater length. The popular length is now 2 by 2½ yards, but Fall brides will have veils measuring 2½ by 3¾ yards. The greater length will be more evident, according to Theodore Dorras of Dorras Brothers, manufacturers of wedding veils, in simple veils than in the case of those of lace or the embroidered variety.

"For the machine embroidered veils," he said, "English net is mostly in vogue. The corsage bouquet of orange blossoms and the trimming of tiny orange blossom bouquets are features of the new styles. Bridal wreaths will have a low crown. Orange blossom buds, in trimming by the yard, are used mostly by the foreign trade in this country, who trim both the dress and the veils. The American girl, however, has taken up the style, just as other ideas in wedding attire are borrowed from the foreign born.

"Approximately 1,000,000 weddings take place in the United States every year. About half the brides use the veil. The demand for bridal wreaths indicates that they are used by about 250,000 brides every year. Since it has become cheaper to become stylishly married, the number will probably increase."

U. S. MINISTER HAS PRESENTED HIS CREDENTIALS

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Sept. 12.—The American Minister, Dr. J. G. Schurman, was received in audience by the President at nine o'clock this morning. He was accompanied by the Grand Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Huang Kai-wen, Mr. W. W. Yen and the Secretary of the Waichiaopu, Mr. Huang Tsung-Fa.

Dr. Schurman presented his credentials.

RECEPTION OF MINISTER

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Sept. 12.—Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, American Minister to China, was formally received today at nine o'clock by his Excellency, Hsu Shih-chang, President of the Chinese Republic.

The occasion was marked by much ceremony. The Master of Ceremonies, the Assistant Master of Ceremonies, military official and the guard of honor of 60 men attended upon the Minister at the Legation and escorted him to the Palace of the President in the Forbidden City. Dr. Schurman was there received by the President, who was surrounded by the high officials of the Government.

In his speech, Dr. Schurman attended to the President for the Chinese people the friendship of the American people, and reiterated the great eagerness of America to help China over her present difficulties and he said that he would consider it one of the greatest pleasures of his life if he should be able to assist in this work.

In replying to this speech Dr. W. W. Yen said for the President that the Chinese were very happy to receive this reassurance of the long-existing friendship of the American people. He also reminded the people of America that the present troubles of China were only the throes that every nation must go through when it is finding itself, and becoming a united whole, and that as the troubles of every other nation had passed, so would the present troubles of China.

Dr. Schurman presented his credentials from the American Government. The party was then escorted back to the Legation. Dr. Schurman was accompanied by military and naval attaches of the Legation, as well as by the various secretaries. Mr. Peck and Mr. Wang, the latter, the Secretary to Dr. W. W. Yen, acted as interpreters.

ARTIFICIAL RAIN IS CREATED IN JAPAN

Resident Of Aichi Prefecture Says He Can Produce Showers At Will

USES ELECTRICAL WAVES

Inventor Plans To Take Machine To Korea To Attempt To Break Drought

Tokio, September 2.—Rain being an essential thing for agriculture and other purposes, it has been a universal desire to produce rain when it was needed, especially in days of drought. That rain can be caused by an artificial method of electric vibrations has been a scientific idea of long standing, according to the Hochi, which has often been experimented upon in Europe in the latter part of 19th century. Some reasonable success has been attained. But it has not been experimented upon in Japan in any large scale.

But now comes Mr. Masataka Nobuhara of Aichi Prefecture, 55 years old, who claims that he has succeeded with his experiment in inducing moisture to localise by means of 80,000 volts of electricity sent forth from the ground and released in the air. The electricity was released by means of a machine placed in a balloon, whose duty it was to transfuse the power as sent up from the ground. He is said to have caused a shower.

WOULD AID KOREANS

Mr. Nobuhara has an ambition to utilize his method in relieving the regions in Korea where every year the farmers suffer from want of rain. He designed a machine of his own for releasing electricity and ordered it to be manufactured by the Nihon Wireless Manufacturing Company of Ebisu, Tokio, and also balloons to be manufactured by the Osaki Balloon Manufacturing Company. The work on the two machines which was commenced July 20 was completed on August 28 and all other preparations finished.

The experiment was arranged to be held on August 30 in Hadano, Kanagawa Premecture. The machine for releasing electricity as invented by Mr. Nobuhara is placed on a balloon which measures about 60 feet long, 18 feet wide, comprising 250 cubic meters of space. The balloon is sent up 1,000 meters in the air, and electricity is sent up to the machine from the ground by a transmission wire. The electricity is released into the air constantly for more than 24 hours. The electric waves will then induce moisture in the neighborhood of the balloon to assemble and will cause it to cool, thus causing rain to fall over a space of about 625 acres.

APPARATUS COSTS Y.50,000

A complete outfit costs Y50,0 As gas is needed for flight, one flight will cost about Y1,000. If successful in the practical experiment, the Hochi says that it will be regarded as a great invention in Japan, regardless of the cost of the operation.

It has been a custom among Japanese farmers in the past to beat drums or build bonfires on mountains in their prayers to Heaven for rain in days of drought. Then it happened that after a military manoeuvre, in which rifles and guns were fired with great frequency, often it rained.

Mr. Nobuhara took a hint from that fact to invent his method, because if rain can be caused by such primitive methods it should be possible to cause rain by more scientific method of using electricity he says. He has been making various smaller experiments with electric poles, etc. He went to Korea to see if he could rescue Korean farmers from drought. The Korean nobilities and the chief of the weather bureau of Chemulpo assisted him to complete his study thus he was enabled to prosecute his invention to its present stage.

TURKISH PLOT IS WIDESPREAD SAYS GENL. HARINGTON

(Reuter's Service)

London, September 14.—Telegrams received from General Harington show that the plot against the Allies recently disclosed at Constantinople was widespread. Hitherto none of the leaders has been arrested, but persons who have been detained were found to be in touch with the Kemalists.

They endeavored to play on the Moslem feelings of the Indian troops, amongst whom large quantities of seditious pamphlets were distributed. They also aimed at the assassination of the Sheikul-Islam and other prominent Turkish officials, as well as the Allied military leaders. The situation is undoubtedly serious, but there is reason to believe that the movement has been stopped in time.

S'HAI INTERPORT CRICKET ELEVEN LEAVING TODAY FOR HANKOW; LOOKS LIKE WINNER

Will Be "At Home" On Steamer Tonight For Farewell Reception

The eleven which will represent Shanghai in the Interport cricket match Sept. 22 and 23 at Hankow leaves for that port today on the steamer Luenyi.

The team includes the following players:

Messrs. W. C. G. Clifford (Capt.), H. W. Allison, A. H. Leslie, J. Robertson, P. V. Simpson, H. W. P. McMeekin, H. Langley, E. G. Barnes, J. M. Pearson, T. L. Rawsthorne, D. W. Leach.

The following are the officials for the trip:

W. C. G. Clifford, Captain.
D. W. Leach, Vice Captain.
A. H. Leslie, Honorable Secretary and Manager.
H. Langley, Photographer.
G. Richards, scorer.

HANKOW'S TEAM

While the Hankow club has not yet selected its eleven the players have been divided into "Possibles" and the "Next Fifteen" as follows:

Possibles: Bailey, H. G. C. (Capt.), Bailey, W. C., Broberg, Green, Lowe, Murray-Kidd, Mancell, Pearson, Reynell, Sherwin, and Tweedie.

"Next Fifteen": Boulton (Capt.), Bryant, Bull, Hunter, Humphreys, Phillips, Prevot, Rowland, Saunders, Twist, Yates and four Naval Officers.

INTERPORT PROGRAM

The following is the provisional program of events during the Shanghai Interport Cricket XI's stay in Hankow.

Tuesday, September 20. If it can be arranged a cricket match will be played between the Shanghai XI and a Navy XI.

In the evening a dance will be held at the Race Club commencing at 9:15.

Wednesday, 21.—It is hoped to arrange swimming and water polo matches between teams selected from the Shanghai and Hankow elevens.

Thursday and Friday, 22 and 23—Interport Cricket match. On Friday evening billiard matches will be played between representatives of the two elevens.

Saturday, 24.—Tennis matches.

In the evening the members of the Shanghai XI will be the guests of the Race Club at dinner.

Sunday, 25.—Golf.

The Shanghai delegation expects to sail for home Sept. 25.

MARINES STAGE BIG COME-BACK AGAINST HURON

With Two To Nil Against Them They Pull Game Out Of Fire

Peking, Sept. 13.—The baseball series between the U. S. Marine Corps and the team from the U. S. N. Flagship Huron came to a conclusion on Sunday afternoon, when the local Nine won the game and rubber. Owing to errors by the Marine catcher, the visitors scored two runs in the second inning and held their opponents down till the sixth inning, when the Marines scored 4 runs. One run to the ship's team caused some excitement in the seventh inning, but when the Marines scored a single in their half of the inning, matters looked pretty safe for the local men. The visitors failed to score again and had to acknowledge defeat by 5 runs to 3. The score by innings follows:

SCORE BY INNINGS

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	T'al
U.S.N. Huron	0	2	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	=3
U.S. Marines	0	0	0	0	0	4	1	0	—	=5

Dempsey Says Georges Will Beat Gibbons

Denver, Col., Aug. 10.—Georges Carpentier was picked as winner over Tom Gibbons in the Gibbons-Carpentier bout to be held in New York, by Jack Dempsey, champion heavyweight pugilist, who spent several hours in Denver yesterday. Dempsey and his trainer, Teddy Hayes, are on their way to Los Angeles, after a vacation of ten days spent in Antonito, Col., Dempsey's childhood home.

"Put your money on Carpentier, is my advice," Dempsey told friends who met him at his hotel. "Carpentier is the best in the world for his weight."

The champion said his trip to New York to confer with Kearns had been postponed.

U. OF W. BASEBALL TEAM IN JAPAN MAY TOUR CHINA

Strong Northwestern College Nine Is Open For Far East Dates

Tokio, Sept. 11.—Tokio is to have another series of real baseball games this season, beginning next Saturday afternoon when the crack nine of the University of Washington will meet the Waseda team, which returned recently from a tour of the United States, on the Waseda diamond. The series here will include several games with Waseda, Keio, Meiji and Hosei universities, the exact number of games being undetermined as yet because the schedule will not be completed until tomorrow or Tuesday.

Following the games in Tokio the Washington team is to leave for other parts of Japan where it is expected that games will be scheduled. Provided the team makes a good showing in Japan they expect to go on to Korea, China, the Philippine Islands and back to Honolulu before returning to school. This, of course, depends on the success of the team in Japan. None of the players will re-enter school before the second semester.

To gain a fair idea of the brand of baseball that the Pacific Coast college play, a review of the last season shows that they missed the championship of the northern Pacific states by one game. They played four games with the University of California team which visited Japan early in the summer, winning two of them and losing the other two. Just before returning to Japan the Waseda team played a five-game series in Seattle, the Washington team winning three out of the five, one of these being the worst defeat—10 to 2—that was handed to Waseda while Professor Abe had his men in America.

The American team is in charge of Mr. Leonard B. Allison, the university baseball coach, who also coached football there last fall, and Mr. M. W. McInnis, the student manager.

Thirteen players are making the trip. They are: Pitchers, Ralph Leonard, Elbert Harper and Frank Setzer; catchers, Gilbert Maloney and Perry Land; first base, Roy Barrett; second base, Richard Weltz; shortstop, Roscoe Torrance; third base, George Marriott; utility infielder, William Bakke; left field, Hunter Miles; center field, Gordon McMahon, and right field, Osborne Gardner.

TOMORROW

1.—The Novices Race, mile and quarter, for griffins of 1921.

2.—The Polo Dash Handicap, three quarters of a mile, for China ponies that have been playing polo regularly this season and that have been started at this meeting.

3.—The Saturday Selling Plate, 7 furlongs, for all China ponies.

4.—The September plate, 9 furlongs, for all China ponies.

5.—The Autumn handicap, mile and quarter, for all China ponies.

6.—The Stewards stakes, 5 furlongs, for non-winners since Dec. 31, 1920.

7.—The Citizens Plate, mile and quarter, for all China ponies.

8.—The Midland plate, one mile, for griffins of 1921.

9.—The Moderate Plate, mile and half, for non-winners of this meeting.

Transportation to the track will be had by special trains leaving Shanghai at 1:15 and at 1:30 p.m., and by special auto service from the various garages run on a one minute schedule from noon. Tiffin will be served in the Kiangwan pavilion.

Japanese Wins Malayan Lawn Tennis Title

Singapore, Sept. 10.—In the Malayan Lawn Tennis Championship Nakamura (Japanese) beat Khoo Hooi-hye (Chinese) 6-4, 6-3. It was a brilliant game in which the Chinese drove and placed brilliantly but the Japanese, with wonderful steadiness, prevailed. In the course of the competition Nakamura has beaten the champions of Selangor, Penang and two senior Singapore Clubs amongst others, altogether obtaining 16 sets against two and 104 against 58.

Lawnbowls Was Dissipating Game Many Centuries Ago

Bowls has a history more ancient and splendid than that of either cricket, football or baseball.

You may see it pictured on old manuscripts, the ink on which was dry when the Great Charter was signed seven centuries ago. So popular had it become in the time of Richard II, that it was forbidden by law because it interfered with the practice of archery, while in Henry VII's reign it was associated with so much gambling and dissipation that the law stepped in again.

But in spite of such difficulties it flourished through the centuries. Every village had its bowling green, and there was one attached to every country house. The greatest in the land vied with the humblest in their enthusiasm.

Henry VIII, spent hundreds of happy hours in his Whitehall bowling-alleys. James, I was "passionately addicted" to the game; and Charles I. "had a great love for it."

SHAKESPEARE PRAISED IT

Shakespeare sang its praises in several of his plays and it was from a game of bowls on Plymouth Hoe that Drake went to scatter the proud Spanish Armada.

The game is played with heavy bowls on a very smooth green from thirty to fifty yards wide. The bowls, which are of wood, are from six to seven inches in diameter. They are turned more or less oval, with one side a little rounder than the other. This gives a bias to the bowl, which runs in a curved direction instead of straight.

Any number within reason can play the game; but usually the players are arranged into opposing teams of four each, each man playing two bowls. A small white ball without bias, known as the jack, is thrown to a distance of not less than twenty yards from one end of the green; and the object of each player is to roll his bowl, with an underhand threw, so that it lies as near the jack as possible.

Eight players follow in turn until all the sixteenth bowls are on the green, when a point is counted for every bowl belonging to one side which is nearer the jack than the nearest bowl of the other side. In the next round the player whose bowl was nearest the jack in the previous round leads off from the other end of the green; and so on until one side has scored game, which may be any number of points mutually agreed on—usually twenty-one or thirty-one.

The great interest in the game consists in either knocking an opponent's bowl away from the jack, or taking the jack away from his bowl and bowling your own as near to it as possible.

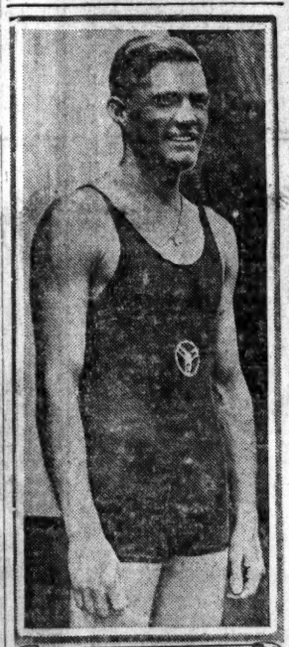
In aiming, you have to allow for the curious bias, which makes the bowl curve in either from the right or the left.

PITCH TAKES WATCHING

The next thing to observe is pitch. In regulating this you must study your green, for all greens are by no means "like a billiard table." You must adjust your pitch to the ground you are playing on. As for pace, the player's eye should aid him; and he must vary it according to whether he intends to lie up by the jack or drive away an opponent's bowl.

In placing the players, the least skilful should go second, because he can then do least harm; the third should be able to "rake" or "ride," while the "skip," or captain of the side, should be the most experienced performer. To "ride" is to play with such force as to strike out an opponent's bowl, or send the jack off the edge of the green—a risky game; for, if the object is missed, the bowl is lost or it may displace one of the best bowls of its own side. Rocking, which generally is better than riding, because its results can be foreseen more clearly, afford more scope for tactics—such as displacing and lying in place of a bowl: driving a short bowl up to the jack: or throwing out your opponent's nearest bowl when it is jack high.

Wins Ten Mile Title Swim But Is Disqualified



EUGENE BOLDEN

Eugene T. Bolden, of the Illinois A. C. of Chicago, twice winner of the national A. A. U. ten mile swimming championship in the Delaware River, finished first in that event at Riverton, N. J., recently, but was disqualified for not wearing a regulation suit, as called for by the rules. James W. Hall, of Brooklyn, who finished second, was awarded the race. Bolden entered the water at Philadelphia wearing the regulation suit, but when he emerged at Riverton he had on only an elastic supporter. His time was 2 hours, 7 minutes and 45 seconds.

SCOTCH CO. HOLDS ITS MONTHLY CUP CONTEST TODAY

Overseas Competition Is Set For Sunday; Teams Are Chosen

The Monthly Cup Competition of the Scottish Co., S.V.C., will be held this morning and afternoon and being a public holiday it is expected there will be a good attendance. Efforts are being made to improve the shooting of the Company and greater stress will be placed in future on attendance at the monthly cup competitions, not so much from a competitive point of view, but as an aid to better musketry returns.

The teams to represent the company in the Overseas Cup competition on Sunday next will be:

No. 1 Platoon—Sgt. P. Campbell, Cpl. T. G. Smeaton, Ptes. C. E. M. Thomson, B. G. Wilson, A. Taylor, A. Youngson, W. G. Cameron; reserves: Ptes. T. W. R. Wilson and F. T. Gardner.

No. 2 Platoon—Sgt. D. G. Latimer, Ptes. J. E. Gray, J. P. Stalket, J. Macbeth, J. R. Moodie, F. Henry and J. Munro.

The team chosen for the American Cup, the competition for which takes place on Sunday week, consists of: Co. Sgt. Major K. McKelvie, Ptes. C. E. M. Thomson and J. Macbeth; reserve: Pte. J. R. Moodie.

The inter-Platoon tennis match had to be curtailed owing to sickness and transfers. Four matches out of seven were played, resulting in a win for No. 1 Platoon by 39 games to 23. The following shows the result in detail:

Sgt. Campbell and Pte. Gardner (No. 1 Platoon) lost to Ptes. Johnson and Pearson (No. 2 Platoon), 2-6, 1-6.

Cpl. Smeaton and Pte. T. Wilson (No. 1 Platoon) beat Ptes. Wallace and Tweedlie (No. 2 Platoon), 6-0, 6-2.

Ptes. B. G. Wilson and Thomson (No. 1 Platoon) beat Ptes. Ritchie and Stewart (No. 2 Platoon), 6-1, 6-4.

Ptes. Youngson and Jamie (No. 1 Platoon) beat Cpl. Campbell and Pte. Maclennan (No. 2 Platoon), 6-0, 6-4.

SHANGHAI CLAY PIGEON CLUB WINS INTERPORT SHOOT WITH TIENTSIN BY 178-170 SCORE

In Spite Of Rain And Wind Local Marksmen Make The Higher Score

The Shanghai Clay Pigeon club won the 1921 Interport event with Tientsin according to telegraphic advices received here from the North yesterday. The five Tientsin shots totalled 170 breaks out of a possible 200, as compared to Shanghai's 178.

Complete scores of both teams follow:

SHANGHAI

Reid	40
Gibson	38
Hexamer	37
Beatty	32
Gande	31
Total	178

TIENTSIN

Atwood	37
Lorensen	33
Trav-Smith	35
Sanderson	33
James	32
Total	170

Shanghai's margin over Tientsin in the totals was narrow, due, according to local sportsmen, to the extreme unfavorable weather conditions which prevailed here at the time of the actual shoot Wednesday afternoon and to the bad weather that has prevailed here for the past several weeks, rendering sharp practice shooting almost impossible.

The contest had for a trophy the Murray Cup.

Suzanne Lenglen Cancels Her Tour Because Of Illness

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Sept. 14.—Mlle. Lenglen has cancelled all her lawn tennis engagements in America owing to ill health. The doctors say she will be unable to play for three months. She will sail for France, probably on the 17th instant.

Fighting Cop Wins First Ring Bout

Long Island City (N.Y.), August 16.—Harry Darnelle, Washington's fighting cop, won his first professional bout tonight when the referee stopped a twelve-round match with Fred Schroeder of New York in the sixth round. The two heavyweights had pummeled each other without displaying much science and Schroeder appeared completely exhausted.

The weights were: Darnelle, 185 pounds; Schroeder, 188½.

ROYAL TIME IN STORE FOR S'HAI TEAM IN H'KONG

It Must Dine And Dance 'n Everything Besides Swimming Its Best

Shanghai swimmers may look forward to a royal time when they visit Hongkong. Arrangements on their broad lines have been completed, though Mr. R. C. Witchell of the V. R. C. is collecting grey hairs in looking after the thousand and one little details which make or mar a pleasant event. The Shanghailanders will be welcomed, dined and danced and, it is to be hoped, thoroughly convinced that Hongkong has their measure at swimming. The Interport competitions will commence on Wednesday, Sept. 28, continuing until the following Saturday.

On the first day the events to be decided are the 880 yards and throwing the polo ball. These will take place outside the bath. The visitors will be welcomed and afterwards there will be a dance at the V. R. C. Thursday's events consist of the 220 yards and long plunge, while Friday will see the running header from spring board and the 440 yards. Saturday is the local championship day.

The Interport event will be the 100 yards, high dive, 100 yards back race, 2 lengths team race and water polo. The following local championships will also take place: 100 yards H. M. forces, 100 yards ladies' championship, ladies' high dive, 100 yards boys' championship. After the swimming there will be a dinner at the Hongkong Hotel, followed by a dance at the V. R. C. On Sunday it is hoped to take the visitors to Repulse Bay.

S'hai Bowlers Keeping Busy On Hankow Trip

The Shanghai interport team of lawn bowlers which was defeated at Hankow yesterday by a score of 29-16, is booked for matches with other clubs for every day of their stay in the central port until and including Sunday. The program of fixtures for the Shanghai visitors follows:

Wednesday, interport event, Shanghai vs. Hankow.

Thursday, Shanghai vs. Hankow Golf Club.

Friday, Shanghai vs. the Cercle Gaulois.

Saturday, Shanghai vs. the Hankow Race Club.

Sunday, Shanghai vs. the Hankow Customs Club.

The Shanghai delegation will be entertained at dinner tomorrow night by the members of the Hankow Lawn Bowls Club.

Carlton Ballroom Re-opening Draws Immense Throng

The re-opening of the Carlton ball room for the coming season was greeted last night by an immense throng that packed the place until the early hours. In the period that the upper rooms have been closed they have been completely refurnished and redecorated while a number of changes in arrangements also have been made. A particular feature has been made in providing luxuries and comforts in the ladies' rooms. The reception room has been entirely refurnished and in the main dancing rooms the floor has been renewed and enlarged and a new lighting scheme has been installed.

Manager Ellis had a large number of reservations for dinner and through the evening every place in the ballroom was occupied. Frank Barron's orchestra won appreciative applause from the dancers with a large number of new song hits which arrived on the steamer Hawkeye State from America. A number of dinners and features are being arranged for the coming season by the management.

S. V. C. Notes

The small turn out of recruits for Musketry Instruction under the Corps S. M. has been disappointing, as far as the younger men are concerned. The older men who are coming into the Corps are showing an excellent example in this respect. Perhaps it is not realised by all how essential it is that the elements of Musketry should be thoroughly understood before practice on the range is undertaken. It is hoped that there will be a better attendance in future at the lectures, dates and hours of which were published in C. R. O. 197 of 2nd inst.

It is proposed to have a ceremonial parade tomorrow afternoon in honor of Major General Leonard Wood of the U. S. Army who is making a flying visit to Shanghai, but at the time of writing it is not yet known whether the parade can be fitted into General Wood's spare time.

If held, the fall-in will be at 3-10 p.m. on the Bund. The dress will be review order with caps, Light Horse and F. A. B. dismounted. If wet, the parade will be held in the Drill Hall.

OFFICERS MESS

The monthly officers' mess dinner was held on Thursday, 8th inst., being postponed from the previous night in order not to clash with a Cricket Club affair. A meeting of Unit Commanders was held afterwards to discuss a revision of rules for the Efficiency Shield which has lately become a dead letter owing to the large number of 'tests' involved. Certain principles were settled at the meeting, and a draft of the amended rules has been circulated to Unit Commanders for their remarks.

The Commandant is also circularising Unit Commanders on the subject of the Barnes Cup, his view being that no advantage should be gained by a team which marches faster than the 'service' rate and that the draw for the selection of competitors should be based on the lowest organisation of the Unit, i.e., the section or subsection. The donor of the Cup will of coarse be consulted before any change is made in these rules.

Today being observed as a general holiday, the Headquarter offices will be closed for business.

FIELD ARTILLERY BATTERY

The battery ride on Sunday, a pleasant change from gun drill and driving, had to be cancelled owing to the continuous rain. With the best will in the world it is difficult to carry out effectively outdoor work, but much can be done in the Drill Hall, which should be availed of when weather makes field work impossible. Next Sunday Lieut Hay, who has returned from leave will command the Right Section which will fall in at 9 a.m. in drill order. Riding "school" will be continued as usual on the roads until the school itself has been rebuilt.

Bdr. Bartley is detailed for orderly duty next week.

Lieut. Holland will go on short leave in the course of a few days.

Most of the gunners who have been on sick leave have now returned to duty. On Tuesday, however Gnr W. E. Holland was taken suddenly ill and underwent a serious operation at the Victoria Nursing Home. He is in a very weak state at the time of writing.

SHANGHAI SCOTTISH

The Recruiting Committee has got seriously to work and its campaign will be launched within a day or two. An appeal will be addressed to every known Scotsman in Shanghai to join, if he does not already belong to a Unit of the Corps, and in any case to further the interests of the Company by urging others to join. The campaign will be an active one and the appeal will be followed with personal interviews. The strength of the Company is already steadily increasing; rarely an order comes out that does not contain the name of a new member.

The whole Company regretted that the parade called for last Sunday was postponed on account of the inclement weather, but it will be held at an early date.

Richest Young Man Guest Of English King At Ball

From A Private In 1917 To Wealth And Social Recognition By Nobility Is Rapid Rise Of Marshall Field, III.

From the St. Louis Post Dispatch.

A private in the Illinois field artillery in 1917; a broker's clerk in 1919; a guest of the king and queen of England in 1921: These are periods by which may be marked the dizzying social ascent of a young man who is now but 27 years old. He is Marshall Field III, grandson of Chicago's famous merchant prince, and the latest owner of a great American fortune to acquire an estate in England and establish a home there.

Incidentally he is probably the richest young man in the world, estimates of his fortune running well over 150 million dollars.

An invitation to the state ball, where "to sup with the king," officially if not literally, is the hallmark of social standing, the 24-carat stamp of unalloyed social prestige. One has arrived, indeed, who gets the royal command to attend.

News of the social triumph of the Marshall Fields is contained in accounts of the royal ball given July 8 at Buckingham palace, the first to be held since 1914, at which the youthful Americans were invited guests. Shortly after announcement was made that Field was negotiating for the entire racing establishment of Sir Ernest Cassel, the intimate friend of King Edward VII, and that the Field colors and those of the Prince of Wales are likely to appear together when the season opens next year.

EDUCATED IN ENGLAND

After the tragic death of young Field's father, his mother took her two small sons and her smaller daughter to England. There, after rejecting titled suitors, one at least of whom was said to have had the favor of King Edward VII, she finally was married to Capt. Malcolm Drummond, who had neither money nor title, but who had a goodsense of humor and a physique that measured something over six feet.

Little Marshall III and his brother Henry were sent to school at Eton and later to Cambridge. They acquired the English accent, English manners, and, what was even more important in its bearing on Marshall's future—English friends. But they were not permitted to forget that they were Americans.

In such an atmosphere Marshall Field III developed, so they say, into a modest, likable fellow who made many friends among the titled youth with whom he played cricket and golf. And it is to this circumstance—and the fact of his retiring behavior that his ready acceptance by the royal house is attributed.

But this is getting ahead of the story. It was in 1914 that the 20-year-old heir returned to America to make first hand acquaintance with the tremendous interests which he was eventually to direct. They gave him a desk in the Chicago store. It was a shirtsleeve job.

But the war came on, and ultimately, our entrance into it. He enlisted in the cavalry, but his spurs never scratched a mahogany desk top. He went in as a private. Just that.

MARRIED AMERICAN GIRL

To go back a bit, until his visit to this country in 1914, Marshall apparently had remained whole of heart, although a young man who not only was heir apparent to some 100-150 million dollars, but also had the "advantages" of an English education English acquaintances among the "very best people," and who was, himself, not at all unpresentable, probably could have found favor in many pretty English eyes. He already was connected by marriage, with notable British families, his father's sister being the wife of Admiral David Beatty. So circumspect was he, however, that not even gossip attempted seriously to link his name in such a connection.

Which brings us to a significant scene in the history of the young man's affairs. The setting is upon the deck of the Lusitania—New York bound. A young man and a young woman are standing at the rail, gazing across the waves. The young man is Marshall Field III and the young woman is Miss Evelyn Marshall of New York. They have met the day before, and, as the Lusitania is a fast boat, no evenings are being wasted.

In the New York and London papers is presently announced an engagement. They were married in February, 1915.

To take up the story again at the close of the war, Marshall Field emerged a captain. He visited his relatives and friends in England, and then returned again to the ranks, this time to civilian life. Among the vast interests that made up his grandfather's estate were huge blocks of stocks and bonds, and he deemed it advisable to familiarise himself with such matters. When reporters found him at the obscure desk of a clerk in a brokerage office he looked up cheerfully, and explained: "Just trying to get on to this financial game."

THEN THE ROYAL BALL

And now the last scene—that which marks the culmination of a social career unparalleled for success in such a brief time.

It is the night of the royal ball. Fitting enough, the royal guests of honor are the king and queen of the Belgians.

A thousand motor cars, bearing distinguished men and beautiful women move slowly up the Mall. By various entrances the guests go into the palace, and are escorted up the grand staircase to the state floor and ballroom, where they await the appearance of the royal party. Two thousand guests have been invited—twice the customary number. They range from the diplomatic corps through dukes, duchesses, marquises, marchionesses, earls and countesses, on through viscounts, viscountesses, lords, right honorables, plain honorables, to messieurs and mesdames.

Among the "messieurs" we find the subject of this story and, among the accompanying "mesdames" the name of his wife: plain Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Field. Not even the "III" appears on his name in the official list. In fact, the only person present affecting Roman numerals is George V.

It was close upon the echoes of the ball that announcement was made of the negotiations by Field for the Cassel racing establishment, one of the largest and most famous in England.

Sikhs And Priest Found Guilty Of Attacking Pilgrims

(Reuter's Service)

Lahore, Sept. 13.—All except ten of the accused have been found guilty in connection with the fighting between Sikh inhabitants and pilgrims at the Nankana-Sahib shrine on February 24.

The priest who was responsible for the assembling of fighters was among those found guilty. Judgment has been deferred until October.

Spook Photographs Interest Inquirers

Flashlights, Taken Of Woman Who Evolves Strange Something Called Plasma

London, July 16.—In a sun-heated room lit by a glaring glass dome members of the Psychical Research Society recently inspected a series of spook photographs. They were pictures taken by flashlight of a woman medium who has the power—so it is claimed—of allowing "plasma" to be extruded from various parts of her body.

The manifestation took place in a dark room during a seance and under conditions arranged by the spirits. When the right moment comes signals are given by raps, the magnesium flares up and the devotees wait with excitement to see what the camera has caught.

The spirits had directed that the medium should be dressed in black with black stockings, so that the "plasma" should be seen in white contrast.

To the uninitiated the "plasma" looks like some white, soft material, sometimes like a viscous fluid, sometimes of wispy texture, sometimes piling itself up in columnar mass on the floor, but nearly always flowing from some part of the medium's body or from her feet.

The speech made by a member of the society and the answers to various questions did not make it clear why such importance should be attached to these photographs. No one knew what or why "plasma" was. It was said to be cold and rather repulsive to the touch, capable of leaving an impression on wet clay, and sometimes rather prickly.

Its shape seemed to vary according to the expectations of the circle. In some cases it would be columnar, in others it would take the shape of hands. No one asked why the camera should be affected by the expectation of the circle and no one knew why the "plasma" sometimes suddenly returned to the body like a flash and at other times retreated slowly. But all the members said it was very interesting and "we must go on with our investigations."

WANT CHANG TO GET BACK URGA FROM RED ARMY

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Sept. 14.—The Peking Government has wired to General Chang Tso-lin, asking that he bring about the return of Urga, implying that inasmuch as the Government has paid General Chang a good many times now for the return of Urga, they expect a delivery of the goods.

Now Chang has given the Peking Government an answer to their telegram. He says that he has put the matter in the hands of his reliable aide, Chow Fen, and that this gentleman will bring the matter a speedy and successful conclusion. But Chang says that his military needs are becoming more seriously urgent every day, and that he can do nothing unless the Government remits him eight hundred thousand dollars.

This report was received from Chinese news sources.

PUBLIC NOTIFICATION
Chinese Government Railways
PEKING-HANKOW LINE
Short Term Bonds

In 1915, the Peking-Hankow Railway has floated a loan amounting to two million and five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000) which has been oversubscribed. Interests have been paid and bonds retired punctually.

With a view to develop the traffic along its line, to strengthen the old bridge, to erect new bridges, to increase the efficiency of its administration, the Peking-Hankow Railway floats, with the approval of the Ministry of Communications a new loan amounting to four million dollars ($4,000,000), bearing an interest higher than the previous loan.

Subscriptions will be taken place either at the Banks designated below, or at the Accounting Department or the Peking-Hankow Railway.

The regulations governing the issuance of the bonds are as follows:

Regulations governing the Issuance of Peking-Hankow Railway Short-Term Bonds. (Improvement)

Art. 1. With a view to develop the traffic along its line, the Peking-Hankow Railway is authorised by the Ministry of Communications to float a short term loan, to be known as Peking-Hankow Railway Short Term Bonds.

Art. 2. The total amount of the bonds is fixed at four million dollars ($4,000,000) Peking currency.

Art. 3. The denominations of the bonds are of four kinds: namely, $10,000, $1,000, $100, and $50.

Art. 4. Interest for the bonds is 0.8% monthly.

Art. 5. Subscriptions will be taken place within one month and half, that is, from August 16th to September 30th, the tenth year of Chinese Republic.

Art. 6. The term of the bonds is four and half years. Interest for the first six months shall be paid in advance at the time of subscription. $500,000 bonds shall be retired in every six months by drawing, until the total issue shall be retired on March 31, the 15th year of Chinese Republic. The drawing shall be taken place on March 15 and September 15 of every year, supervised by representatives from the Ministry of Communications.

Art. 7. Subscriptions shall be closed at the end of September, the tenth year of Chinese Republic. Subscriptions paid before this date shall receive a monthly interest of 0.8%, to be counted by days, from date of subscription to the end of September which, together with the interest for the first six months (from November 1st, the tenth year of Chinese Republic, to March 31st the eleventh year) shall be deducted from the amount of subscription at the time when payment is made. Interest shall hereafter be paid semi-annually.

Art. 8. The bonds shall be sold at ninety two dollars and eighty cents ($92.80) per every hundred dollars ($100), but shall be retired at the par value.

Art. 9. Those bonds which have been drawn shall receive interests only up to the end of the term in which the drawing has taken place, whatever the date of payment will be.

Art. 10. Beginning from the time when subscription is closed, the Peking-Hankow Railway shall reserve every month $100,000 from its operating revenues to be deposited in the following banks which shall act as its subscription agents, the Bank of China, the Bank of Communications, the Continental Bank, the Kincheng Banking Corporation. the Sing Hua Savings Bank, the Salt Bank, etc., as gurantees for the payment of the bonds and interests.

Art. 11. The above-mentioned banks shall act as the agents of the Peking-Hankow Railway for the sale of the Bonds. But they shall from time to time advice with the Accounting Department of the Peking-Hankow Railway. Interests shall be paid and bonds retired through the same banks.

Art. 12. Detailed regulations governing the sale of the bonds shall be made separately.

Art. 13. The bonds shall not be registered in the name of the purchaser, but it may be so registered, if requested.

Art. 14. The bonds shall be good for guarantee money of the employees of the Chinese Government Railways.

Art. 15. The bonds shall be good for securities or guarantees of the contractors, merchants, and transportation companies who may have contracts with the Peking-Hankow Railway.

Art. 16. The matured bonds and interest coupons shall be good for cash payment to the Peking-Hankow Railway.

Art. 17. In case of loss or destruction by fire of the bonds the original owner or owners shall notify the police office at the place of his residence the number of the bonds and the conditions when they are lost or destroyed, and shall also notify the bank of issue. At the same time, the facts shall be published in at least two daily newspapers. After two months, the bank of issue shall certify the facts and request the Peking-Hankow Railway to issue new bonds to take the place of the lost or destroyed bonds. Matured bonds not redeemed within five years, and interest coupons not redeemed within two years, shall be considered as void.

Note—In case of dispute or disputes arising out of the interpretations of these regulations, the original Chinese version shall be considered as valid.

A JAVA SECRET IN SHANGHAI "BATIK"

For centuries the art of Batik, of painting wonderful designs on silk in unfading and waterproof colours of great beauty, has been a carefully guarded secret in certain families in the Dutch Indies. Greatly in demand in Europe, the process is especially suitable for ladies dresses, cushions, lamp-shades and handkerchiefs.

Recently brought to Shanghai, samples may now be seen by appointment at No. 1, Yu Yuen Road, and at Hall and Holtz, Squires and Ye Gift Shop.

Conseil D'Administration Municipale De La Concession Francaise de Changhai

MUNICIPAL LOAN OF 1921

(20,000 debentures of Tls. 100 each).

Rate of interest 8% per annum

The "Conseil d'Administration Municipale de la Concession Francaise de Changhai" hereby invite subscriptions for 20,000 debentures of Tls. 100 each, according to the resolution passed at their General Meeting on May 30, 1921.

The conditions on which the Debenture Certificates will be issued are:—

1°—The Debenture Certificates are transferable, and the person whose name is entered in the Register of Debenture Certificate or Certificates, shall alone be recognised and treated by the Council as the lawful and rightful holder and owner of such Debenture Certificate or Certificates.

2°—The loan will be redeemable at par (Tls. 100) in not less than 10 years and not more than 30 years, from 1st July, 1931 and according to the figures determinated by the Council.

3°—The loan will bear interest at 8% per annum, payable on the 30th day of June and 31st of December in each year, when interest warrants will be issued to the registered owners.

4°—The property and income of the Municipality, deducting those which serve as security provided in the Municipal Loans of 1903, 1911, 1914 and 1916 are the security for the repayment of the money advanced and for the interest thereon in the present loan.

The Members of the French Municipal Council are not personally liable in any way for the payment of either principal or interests.

5°—Applications for debentures will be received at the Secretary's Office, Rue du Consulat.

A cheque representing the amount of debentures asked for must be deposited at the same time.

6°—Applications for Debentures under par will not be recognised by the Council.

JAPANESE HANDLE U.S. SILK PURCHASE

Exports Of Raw Silk From Japan To U.S. Have Markedly Improved Since July 1

Since the beginning of the new season opening July 1, the exports of raw silk from Japan have materially improved as compared with the corresponding period of last year, owing wholly to a better demand from the United States.

From the beginning of July, according to a Yokohama firm, raw silk exports have totalled 48,496 bales as compared with 35,882 bales last year. All but 1,739 bales of this, purchased to account of Europe, went to the United States.

The trade to Europe was about equally divided between Japanese and foreign firms but in the case of the United States, Japanese firms handled over three-fourths of the business.

The following figures show the proportion of the raw silk trade which fell to firms handling upward of 1,000 bales:

Breakfast is served on the outward journey, tiffin can be ordered on the car in the Railway siding at Henli, and dinner is obtainable on the train during the return trip. Breakfast 75 cents, tiffin $1.50 and dinner $1.50 each.

This excursion affords an excellent opportunity of getting away from town for a day into the beautiful country-side during the best period of the year.

The 10 hours at Henli give ample time for rowing, swimming, or houseboat enjoyment.

At Kunshan the 9½ hours can be enjoyably spent in visiting the Gardens and Pagodas. The latter stand on the summit of Kunshan Hill, inside the city walls and can be reached in half an hour by rickshaws or by walking through the city from Kunshan station.

Soochow is noted for the well kept Private Gardens and also Tiger Hill with its Pagoda on the top, and 8 hours between the arrival and departure of the Sunday Special can be well spent in seeing these places. The city temple and silk shops inside the city are also well worth a visit. There are several Hotels at Soochow, at which foreign food is served.

Wusih city is a great silk center, and the 6 hours before the train is due to return can be filled by taking a trip to Wei Hill, two miles from Wusih Station, which can be easily reached by rickshaw, sedan chair or boat in the course of an hour. Those who climb to the top of the Hill will be rewarded with a magnificent view of Wusih city, and the Great Ta Hu Lake.

Time-tables and copies of illustrated pamphlets giving full information in regard to the above, and other points of interest can be obtained on application at the Enquiry Office Shanghai North Seats on the train can be reserved by telephoning North 3189.

Peking Medical College

BY ELSIE McCORMICK

IT is only about a hundred years ago that Dr. Peter Parker opened China at the point of a lancet by establishing a pioneer medical mission in Canton. For weeks after his little hospital was established not a patient dared to risk his life at the hands of the strange foreign doctor. At last an old woman, blind from cataract and discouraged by the long-enduring treatments of Chinese physicians, came in despair to the white-faced man from across the sea. An operation restored her sight, and the story of the miracle spread so widely about Canton that Dr. Parker's working schedule soon averaged twenty hours a day.

If Dr. Parker could visit Peking today, he would see his early vision of service realised in an institution that would be a medical Aladdin palace to the mission pioneer. Beside his ramshackle Chinese house with an operating-room whose furniture was a wooden table and a wash-basin, stands a medical center provided with a staff of over a hundred experts, equipped with laboratories prepared to undertake the most advanced phases of modern research. The only point in common between them is the vision of the founders and their understanding of the fact that the best means of preaching to an alien people is through the Esperanto of service.

The Peking Union Medical College is not the casual gift of a rich man whose donations to human welfare are supervised by a private secretary. It is part of a statesmanlike plan to fight China's unicellular enemies without quarter or parley of disarmament. Its purpose is not the training of a few doctors and the caring for patients in a hospital; it seeks to educate a race in maintaining high standards of health; to help create a medical literature for a people barred by language from the scientific libraries of the world; and to undertake long and tedious lines of research that will result at last in solutions to some of China's special disease problems and a lowering of her appalling death-rate.

Without the gift of Mr. John D. Rockefeller, such an institution would never have been opened. There are more than 300 mission hospitals in China, but these with few exceptions are so busy treating individual cases of cholera, tuberculosis and bubonic plague that they can spare neither equipment nor personnel for extended research work.

Many of the hospitals are struggling through with an equipment but little better than that of Dr. Peter Parker's. In some of them inmates are required to bring their own food, and to the foot of each bed are tied live chickens waiting their turn to serve as the patient's tiffin. Handicapped by lack of funds and staffed by harried doctors who are literally working themselves to death, these little hospitals are doing a heroic work in a heroic way. But they are not prepared to study causes, to educate a people or to take advantage of each new discovery in medical science. Such work must be left for a richly endowed institution such as the Peking Union Medical College.

There are people, of course, who see no value in ameliorating the suffering of China. They put forth the old argument about the need for charity at home and the necessity of pestilence and famine in China to keep the population within decent numerical limits. But America as a whole has not thought so, and has always been ready in the past to answer each call for relief from the Chinese people.

It has now been established that China stands only tenth among the countries of the world in density of her population, that her most thickly settled province is less crowded than Holland, that her soil, properly cultivated, can care for a much larger number of inhabitants, and that therefore the "need for decimation" argument is the product of small minds and smaller hearts.

If America had as few graduate physicians in proportion to her population as has China, there would not be more than a hundred doctors in the whole United States. By his gift of a great center for attack in the eternal battle between germ and protoplasm, Mr. Rockefeller will have a greater influence on China's future than a hundred wars between Tuchuns over the plunder of their provinces.

Sea Bathing And The Ear

BY BRICE BELDEN, M. D.

Those who suffer from defects that hamper normal breathing are liable to develop ear affections during the sea bathing season. Such defects include adenoids—from which adults as well as children suffer—greatly enlarged tonsils, deviation of the partition known as the septum, which separates the two nasal chambers, and enlargement of the turbinates (the three scroll-shaped bones which lie one above another on the outer side of each nasal chamber and are covered with erectile and easily congested mucous membrane).

Irritation of any of these abnormal structures by sea water, especially if contaminated with sewage and bacteria, or by pressure variations due to diving, ducking, prolonged immersion, etc., may set up active symptoms of one sort or another referable to the ear.

Those subject to excessive accumulation of wax in the ears should, before beginning sea bathing each year, have their ears examined and the wax removed.

Cotton plugs dipped in olive oil or albolene and inserted into the ears before bathing, and in addition the wearing over the ears of a snug rubber cap, will serve to prevent deafness from this cause when there has been no opportunity to have the wax removed. Such plugs should be immediately removed after bathing.

Topics In Brief

Prohibition is a great thing. The money the head of the family formerly spent for strong drink now is spent by the wife and kids for soft drink.—Kansas City Star.

The old game of piracy may be reviving, but it is a futile endeavor. Sooner or later the pirates will have to land, and then the profiteers will get 'em.—Kansas City Star.

"Work and forget all about the heat," advises Judge Landis. Good advice, especially when the work brings in $50,000 a year and box-seats to all the ball games.—Peoria Transcript.

An issue is something that walks right down the middle of the road, while all the politicians are anxiously hiding out in the tall timbers observing the direction it takes.—Columbia (S. C.) Record.

Whenever a foreign Power wishes a favor from Uncle Sam, it reminds him of the inestimable help it lent him in his struggle for independence. The number of countries which now claim to have aided in the enterprise is enormous, and indicates that Washington and his patriots must have had a pretty easy time of it, sitting around in luxury at Valley Forge and letting the allies do the work.—Kansas City Star.

What's Your Idea Of 'A Gentleman'?

BY DR. CHARLES FLEISCHER

What is your idea of a gentleman? Perhaps you can be moved to self-betrayal before the writer gives himself away. This is the sort of game you cannot play without being caught as illustration of your own definition.

Hear, hear! Hear what President A. Lawrence Lowell, of Harvard, has to say on this score: "A gentleman is one who gives the best of the service to his fellow men and keeps his name out of the papers."

Well, well! and President Lowell is commonly considered one of the courtliest of gentlemen, whether of the old school or the new.

But according to the terms of his definition, he surely is no gentleman. Or, we may grant that he is half a gentleman, since certainly he is one who gives the best of his service to his fellow men. Indeed, herein Dr. Lowell is a real rival to Abou Ben Adhem!

But, behold the sad failure of the second half of him, which would otherwise have rested under the fair suspicion of similar gentility!

For, see, his name is in the papers!

Not only because President Lowell allowed himself to be inveigled into confiding, to the all-hearing ears of a newspaper reporter, his definition of a gentleman, but because that same scholar and gentleman is one of the most interesting and quotable personalities in the land.

Therefore, his name is continuously and conspicuously in the papers.

If the Harvard president has been correctly quoted (and the writer took pains to authenticate the definition), he has perpetrated a particularly delicious specimen of Irish bull.

And, of course, he is too good a democrat to deny some element of the Hibernian in at least his spiritual makeup.

However, one cannot let this go at merely the jesting stage. For there may, after all, have been a bit of selfrevelation in Dr. Lowell's definition.

Our formulations are likely to indicate what we are, and our definitions are apt to be spiritual signposts.

Many folks fairly ache to see their names in print, and would be ready to commit some crime, in the long range from marriage to murder, to secure that coveted joy.

A case in point is that of the man Harris, of Buffalo, who "confessed" having committed the Elwell murder, with which he had no connection whatsoever! His fake confession was made for the sake of the publicity it brought!

On the other hand, there are those supersensitive persons who think it distinctly "vulgar" to be mentioned in the paper—except for some high distinction.

There is something to be said for both sides. In a serio-comic sense, the fact that practically everybody may somehow some day appear in print is just so much democratic proof that we are all equal before the—press.

Again, precisely because anybody can become, for the moment, thus conspicuous in type, such public appearance ceases to be a distinction. On the contrary, it is a commonplace experience decidedly to be avoided by anybody who is somebody.

Therefore, according to President Lowell, a gentleman keeps his name out of the papers. The same holds true, presumably of "ladies."

Of coure, there is likely to be a degree of affectation about all this, as the editor of the society column can tell you, if she chooses!

As a matter of fact, the pitiless publicity of the press—and its sympathetic publication, as well need not be shunned by a gentleman if he has nothing to hide, and should be sought even by a gentleman if he has news or knowledge which the public is entitled to share.

Indeed, the excellent and full definition which is sufficiently given in the first half of the Harvard president's statement actually makes it desirable for a gentleman to court the co-operation of the papers if he wishes to "give the best of his service to his fellow man."

The writer having only half avoided self-betrayal—come, now, suppose you give yourself away entirely by telling your idea of a gentleman!

Today By Arthur Brisbane

Recently Lloyd George said when the armistice was declared England was preparing "more horrible war machinery than the world has yet seen."

One pleasant detail, it appears, of the unseen horrors was to be a fleet of super-submarines, carrying gigantic reservoirs of liquid fire. A submarine would pop up alongside of an unprotected sea coast city, proceed to spray that city with liquid fire, then submerge and depart, leaving the city to burn. That would be an extremely useful weapon in war against Japan, where cities are made of bamboo and paper largely. It is to be hoped that the use of such horrors, or our own thoroughly perfected deadly liquid gas, will never be forced upon this country.

Miss Geraldine Farrar, now weary of the handsomest man in the world, once said, "One can be a splendid woman and a great artist, but not a great artist and a mother." This is a mistake. Madame Schumann-Heink proves it. She is a very great artist and has eight or nine children. Sarah Bernhardt also proved it.. Dozens of others have done the same and all were improved by having the children.

The fact is, probably,, that women very successful, constantly praised, applauded and flattered, find it hard to restrict themselves to one man's consideration and company. Perhaps that is why wise nature, because populating the earth was a pressing problem, has kept women in the background and pushed men forward. It mattered little what men did; they influence children but little.

The Ku Klux Klan, spreading north, establishes its first Nebraska branch at Lincoln. The literary style of the Klan is worthy studying. "The Imperial Proclamation" is "done in the aulic of His Majesty, the Imperial Wizard and Emperor of the Invisible Empire, in the Imperial Palace," etc.

If you join, the Klan will look after you, "in the effulgence of the light of life and amid the sable shadows of death."

The Klan has decided that everything desirable can best be attained through the channel of a high-class mystic, social, patriotic association having a perfect lodge system. It used to be thought that a democratic government with a perfected constitution for its foundation would answer, but conditions change.

By the growth of the Ku Klux you learn that as deer and bullfrogs are attracted by a piece of red flannel and moths by a bright light so men are attracted by mystery and secrecy.

Twenty-six years ago electric generators were installed at Niagara, each of 5,000 horsepower. Wise men said they would soon break down, they were too big. They are still running. In Pittsburgh there has recently been installed a generator of 120,000 horse-power, and that runs smoothly. For a saver of time and space consider a compact machine that can do the physical work of enough horses to crowd all the streets of Pittsburgh.

How big will the generators be when the tides and the sun itself are harnessed? What will men accomplish when all demands for power will be met simply by pressing a button?

Coal miners and oil well workers out of jobs in that day, certainly, but they will be glad of it, for the day's work will be pleasant work, and reduced to two or three hours except for those that prefer to work longer.

From Nelson B. Updike's thoroughly edited Omaha Bee you learn that, bad as farming conditions are, they might be worse. Excellent crops cheer up the farmers, in spite of low prices, in some sections at least.

Around Omaha, instead of selling corn at 50 cents a bushel, farmers raise more hogs, feed them corn and allow the intelligent animals to change fifty cent corn into ten dollar pork.

Hogs are worth ten dollars a hundred now. Even at six dollars a hundred they can be raised without loss on fifty-cent corn.

BIG STAGE-ITES' LITTLE SUPERSTITIONS

Peggy O'Neil Says:

Irish girls are considered very superstitious. I'm not. I think it's a shame that anyone should get the blues through a mirror breaking. It's unwise to think that you are going to be unlucky, for these morbid thoughts alone will bring you down.

A little coincidence did happen to me, though; I shouldn't have thought of it had not my maid reminded me. You know the old saying about if you drop your scissors and they stick in the floor you will have a disappointment? My scissors performed this interesting feat the other day when I was making up in my dressing-room for "Paddy the Next Best Thing."

When I arrived home after the show, I certainly had a sad disappointment. My pet dog had met with a serious disaster. The poor little chap had been treated to a rabbit bone, and choked himself.

Then my superstitious maid reminded me of those scissors that were sticking in the floor. But the rabbit bone would have stuck in the dog's throat just the same, wouldn't it?

Iris Hawkins Says:

The most popular superstition among stage people is that whistling in dressing-rooms brings bad luck—unless the whistler goes outside the room and kisses the wall three times.

I was understudying an actress who is now famous. In a moment of forgetfulness she whistled in her dressing-room. She went very flat during the first act, quarrelled with the manager, who then cancelled her contract, and, in running upstairs, slipped and sprained her ankle.

After much persuasion she kissed the wall three times outside her dressing-room and good luck followed, and the latter part of her performance was a credit to her. The manager insisted that she should carry on, and she really made the show for six months. She is now a leading star.

Elizabeth Irving Says:

My grandfather, the late Sir Henry Irving, had implicit faith in a mysterious charm which he always wore on the first night of a production. It has a wonderful history and can be traced back to the days of the Civil War. Many famous actors and actresses wore it, including Mrs. Siddons and Peg Woffington. In recent years the late Sir Herbert Beerbohm Tree had it about his person on first nights, and today the superstition about this is as strong as ever.

It was sent to me secretly and anonymously on the first night of my first appearance—"Midsummer Night's Dream," at the Court Theater, last December. I felt awfully susceptible to stage fright up to the moment I wore the charm, yet immediately I possessed it I had perfect confidence, and was surprised to receive congratulations after the show.

Those who are not superstitious say the power of the charm is merely imaginary, but I, like those who have worn it, say it is certainly more than that.

* * *

Elsie Prince Says:

Who says Number 13 is unlucky?

A certain nice boy gave me a lovely gold pendant and chain as a token of his love. To my dismay the design was 13 in a circle; nevertheless, I wore it regularly over my heart.

It was presented to me one January when I was booked to play in pantomime. I hadn't worn it more than an hour when a leading producer asked me if I would oblige him by understudying Ella Retford at Manchester as Aladdin. I agreed, and in two weeks' time Miss Retford was indisposed. I became so popular that I was engaged for the London Hippodrome the following year.

I feel sure that Number 13 encouraged me, and was responsible for my enthusiasm while playing the part. But I bar writing on white paper resting on white linen; also quoting Shakespeare; whistling in my dressing-room or singing "I dreamt that I dwelt in marble halls"—which bring bad luck.

Mr. B. Baer

APPENDICITIS, C. O. D.

Folks about to eat home-made biscuits will be glad to know that top price for operations is one thousand washers.

Domestic and foreign scale for carving surgical monogram has been fixed by big Baltimore hospital. Doctors agree that one grand is plenty for whittling medicinal initials in patient.

Sick citizen climbs on anti-septic ironing board like shad on plank. Lays there like helpless label on empty whiskey bottle. Doc drives up in transcontinental operating chair. Starts throwing knives at him, like target in archery contest. Removes everything that is necessary.

All works are out of patient. Doctor pats him on back. Sounds like empty bass drum. Doc crochets him up again. Patient is happy as poker player reaching for chips.

Operation was success. But operating on patient's adenoids is easier than operating on his pocket. Minute he migrates from hospital his memory evaporates like dew in hot sun.

Doc sends him bill, which is like trying to catch moon-beams in butterfly net. Patient is too happy to worry over bills. Seems that when doctor carves stuffings out of client he doesn't remove anything but his memory.

Physician sends out round robin of bills. But only cuckoo answers. Waits around in office sparring with landlord until spiders spin portecochere over door and his whiskers hide patches on his knees.

Pro Rata share of municipal honesty indicates that average citizen is honest when he's sick. Doctor's bill is harder to collect than loose feathers in hurricane. After sick bird is better he gets all annoyed up when he receives bills. Thinks that doc ought to let well enough alone.

Man who gets peck of groceries pays for 'em, f. o. b. table. But man can grab bushel of medical attention, pint of ether. Gets it all on the cuff and then sends cuffs to laundry of forgetfulness.

CAMP AND RIFLE MEETING

Forty-five members have now signed-up for the camp, this is very encouraging, but not good enough yet, we have got to have at least sixty-five men, there is but little excuse for any man not coming forward and putting his full personality into this camp. If we expect to make this company attractive to recruits, the present members must show that we stand together whenever we have to put anything over. In other words let us be known for our "esprit the corps."

The following members have not yet decided for camp:

Corp. Naoh
„ Schinazi
1st. Class Pvt. Schlobohm
Pvt. Flint
„ McHatton
„ Weiss
„ Hansen
„ Williams, W. J.
„ Ballock
„ Noble
„ Turner, J. T. R.

„ Willson
„ Cohen
„ Healey
„ Klein
„ Steiner
„ Tatam
„ Wokosin
„ Baker
„ Boutross
„ Jensen
„ Pape
„ Coleman
„ Hanna
„ James

It is significant that nearly all the members already signed up are men that were in camp last year.

Men are especially requested to be present from Friday night. There are two cup competitions scheduled from Saturday morning. Get in line for these competitions by calling up immediately Sgt. Kay. Fearon, Daniel and Co., C. 108.

CAMP SMOKER

The smoker will be held on Saturday night, September 24, at 8.30. It will be an informal affair. Invite your friends for dinner or for the smoker after, but it will be necessary to give particulars as to the number of guests to Mess Sgt. Engstrom, c/o The Texas Company, the day before the smoker so that he can arrange to lay in the necessary quantity of hot dogs, sandwiches and coffee.

There is no restriction as to the nationality of guests, but it is suggested that it would be well to invite such as might eventually join the Company.

As to the program the Committee in charge is desirous of having as many items as possible by the members of the Company. If you can do any kind of a stunt, please hand in your name to the Committee as soon as possible.

The Committee will be obliged for any suggestions concerning the Program.

Committee,
Private Fowler, c/o Texas Company.
Corporal R. Deming, c/o Texas Company.

TEXACO
TEXACO HOME LUBRICANT

Texaco Home Lubricant is a light lubricating oil specially prepared for household uses.

Think of the many items of household equipment that should be lubricated regularly—sewing machines, lawn mowers, clocks, pianos, weighing scales, and dozens of other similar pieces of mechanism.

Texaco Home Lubricant is an oil exactly suited to this kind of lubrication work. It is also an excellent wood-work polisher and if applied to such articles as cutlery, guns and locks will prevent rust and corrosion.

Home Lubricant is an effective automobile body polisher and a superior lubricant for the magneto.

It is sold in handy cans with an oiler top—ready for service.

You can't help Saving Home Accessories by using Texaco Home Lubricant regularly.

Siccawei Weather Reports

14.—The typhoon continues the recurving motion to N.N.W. and N.; passes between the Pescadores and Formosa, and reaches the N. of the Strait in the evening. Whole cyclonic gales sweep the Channel from end to end. High pressures between Manchuria and Nippon. Strong Northeasterly winds along the coast, from the South of Shantung. Heavy showers at Formosa and in China all round the typhoon.

15.—Weather gloomy, damp and threatening; intermittent showers. The pressure decreases but slowly yet. Strong E.N.E. squalls all the night.
